The Honorable

Director
Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Bill:

STAT I have just returned from a truly outstanding day at the CIA. Everyone with whom I met, in both the DDI and DDO sides of the house, was courteous, helpful and informative. Indeed, the briefings which [redacted] put together for me in the morning were among the best I have received by anyone. Dewey Claridge and his people also did a knock-out job.

I am sorry we were not able to get together while I was there, but will ask my staff to contact your secretary to see if we can schedule a meeting before I depart for Bonn next month.

Needless to say, you are welcome in Bonn any time it would be convenient for you. I am confident we could put together a good program for you, and Gahl and I hope that you would stay at the Residence with us. I look forward to seeing you soon.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

Rick
